Terroir

A whisky that exhibits all the traditions and character of Speyside region, Scotland's whisky capital. This single malt whisky has been distilled on the banks of the River Lossie since 1897, just outside Elgin, one of Scotland's oldest towns. The unique Speyside climate gently influences these whiskies to produce a well-rounded character and complex finish.

Vinification and maturation

The flagship single malt in the Elgin Heritage single malt range. Carefully matured in the finest first fill ex-bourbon casks for the optimum time to deliver a whisky which is incredibly complex and elegant. Full bodied oak, spice and caramelized fruit flavors create a wonderful taste experience.

Features

Antique gold colour. Toasted oak nose, with deep notes of treacle toffee and caramelized autumn fruits. Taste: Baked spiced apple and vanilla smoked raisins. Rich, smooth and incredibly satisfying. Finish: Mellow, elegant and long. The sweetness and spice naturally fade leaving a light cloud of smoke and toasted oak. A finish which is and wonderfully long.

Other information
