Other information

Keep Calm and Carry On was a motivational poster produced by the British government in 1939 in preparation for World War II. Evocative of the Victorian belief in British stoicism – the "stiff upper lip", self-discipline, fortitude, and remaining calm in adversity – the poster has become recognized around the world.

Keep Calm proposes a variety of easy drinking, fun and casual wines to share every moment with your friends. It revolves around the famous "Keep Calm" symbol, which is easy to remember, inviting and inspiring.
