Terroir

The Pays d'Oc extends over four departments of the Languedoc-Roussillon Region. It has 200 km of coastline and features a mosaic of terroirs with various geological nuances: limestone, clay and sand. Temperate and pleasant Mediterranean climate with excellent sunshine level throughout the year, mild winters and hot, dry summers.

Vinification and maturation

Combination of hot pre-fermentation fermentation techniques and traditional maceration.

Features

Strong nose of ripe red fruit and toasted bread notes. Palate with persistent aromas and dense tannins. Beautifully balanced, well-structured wine with a very tasty finish.

Food Pairings

Ideal with simmered red meats, poultry, pasta and pizza.
