Terroir

Graticcio is the local name of the traditional bamboo racks where the grapes were laid down and dried before vinification.

Vinification and maturation

The wine is partially aged in oak casks.

Features

Intense, deep ruby red color. The fragrance is very fruity and rich with cherry notes. The taste is medium body but very intense, spicy with smooth and full of flavors.

Food Pairings

White and red meats, game, fresh and aged cheeses.

Medals / Press reviews

«Fleshy ripe sweet black cherries on the nose and palate of this full-bodied, smooth Italian red wine. Great price for this quality! Pair with lasagna or sausage. Food pairings: gourmet burgers, hamburgers, prime rib, lasagne, sausage.» - Natalie MacLean
